In November We Remember

Prayer for the Faithful Departed

Loving and merciful God,
In this month of November, we remember with tenderness all who have gone before us.
We entrust them into Your eternal embrace,
where pain is no more and joy has no end.
Comfort those who grieve,
strengthen our hope in the promise of resurrection,
and help us to live each day in love,
so that when our time comes,
we too may rest in Your peace forever.
Amen.

World Day of the Poor Sunday 16th November 2025

"You, O Lord, are my hope" (Ps 71:5). These words well up from a heart burdened by grave hardship:

"You have made me see many troubles and calamities" (v. 20), the Psalmist exclaims. At the same time, his heart remains open and confident; steadfast in faith, he acknowledges the support of God, whom he calls "a rock of refuge, a strong fortress" (v. 3).

Hence, his abiding trust that hope in God never disappoints: "In you, Lord, I take refuge; I shall never be put to shame" (v. 1). – Pope Leo XIV
