Looking backward,
I am filled with gratitude.
Looking forward,
I am filled with vision.
Looking upward,
I am filled with strength.
Looking inward,
I am filled with peace.
Looking outward,
I am filled with love.

Appreciation and thanks to the volunteer spirit of those taking care of the Sacred Heart Cemetery.

INSIGHT

Insight is the ability to see into ourselves and to have self-understanding. This is never fully possible on our own, since to our worst blind spots, we are by definition blind. It is only by being open to receiving honest feedback from others that our level of awareness can improve.

During times of intense struggle what we least need is more effort, but what we do need is understanding as to what is really going on. Often a word of insight from another can do more for us in seconds than years of searching in the darkness on our own.

- Is there an area of my life where I need more insight?
- Do I invite positive feedback from others?
- How do I react to constructive criticism?
- Am I slower to ask for and receive help than to give it?

Wisdom is not the gaining of knowledge, it is the shedding of ignorance.
